

POLLUTION CONTROL AND SAFETY

Fatty acids being organic compounds ,they are biodegradable if released in the atmosphere.They cause no health problems to the people working.Very little treatment is needed for the waste water going out of the plant.For solubility of Fatty acids in water is very low.The glycerol recovery plant also is safer.No major pollution problems are created by a Stearic acid plant